confer upon any pupil of said University, or upon any other person, any of the degrees usually conferred by similar instituutions, or branches of Literature, Art, Science, Theology, Law or Medicine, and grant diplomas for the same, and in all other respects to exercise the functions of the most favored literary institutions in the State of Texas."

REQUISITIONS FOR ADMISSION.

No student shall be admitted unless he presents to the President suitable testimonials of good moral character; and if he comes from another college, he must also represent a certificate of regular dismission, and of good standing in the institution he has left.

The earliest age at which it would be advantageous for a student to enter the collegiate classes is, if a male, at the close of his fifteenth year; if a female, at the close of her thirteenth year; but the President is authorized to matriculate a student at an earlier age, provided sufficient and peculiar reasons exist, and his parent or guardian places him or her under such moral supervision as may be satisfactory to himself.

The form of matriculation is as follows: a student who wishes to enter upon the collegiate course, either regular or partial, must first present his testimonials to the President, who, if satisfied with his evidences of good moral character, will admit him as a candidate for examination, and direct him to the officers by whom he will be examined. If the examination be satisfactory, the student will then procure and read a copy of the laws of the University, after which he shall again call on the President, and sign a declaration of his deliberate intention to obey the laws of the University so long as he shall remain a member of it. As soon as a student is matriculated, the President shall furnish his parent or guardian a copy of the laws of the University.

OF PUNISHMENT.

Section 1. Male students under sixteen years of age are, in the discretion of their respective teachers, at any time, subject to the Written and Mental Arithmetic. The examination will be thorough.

Candidates for an advanced class must sustain a thorough examination in all the studies which have been required of the class they wish to enter.

PARTIAL COURSE.

Those who wish to pursue a partial course of study can do so by request of their parent or guardian; or, if of suitable age, by their own request; but they will be required to recite with the regular classes in those studies which are similar. They can have all the privilege of regular students, and access to the library and lectures.

DEGREES.

A student completing the regular course of study shall be entitled to the degree of A. B.

A student completing the scientific course shall be entitled to the degree of B. Ph.

CURRICULUM OF COLLEGIATES.

A student completing the studies in the female department shall be entitled to the degree of A. M. (Maid of Arts.)

A student completing the curriculum of collegiate studies, in the female department, except the ancient languages, shall be entitled to the degree of M. Ph. (Maid of Philosophy.)

Application for other degrees will be considered by the board of trustees, and upon satisfactory evidence of merit, will be conferred by virtue of and in accordance with the following provisions of the charter.

"Section 3." That the said board of trustees "are hereby authorized, upon recommendation of the faculty of said University, to

BOOKS FOR REFERENCE.

The following books are recommended for reference and parallel reading:

Harkness, Madvig and Zumpt's Latin Grammar; Andrew's Latin

infliction of corporeal punishment for misconduct or inattention to duty.

Section 2. Male students over sixteen years of age, when they shall be guilty of misconduct or inattention to duty, shall also be subject to corporeal punishment, after regular trial before the faculty, and a unanimous verdict on their part that such is the proper course of correction.

Section 3. Female students under twelve years are subject to corporeal punishment. Those over twelve years of age are subject to private or public repremand, a dishonorable dismissal, a definite or an indefinite suspension from the University, at the direction of the faculty.

The faculty may vote to administer a public or private repremand, a public or private infliction of corporeal punishment to male students, as in sections 1 and 2, and to females, as in section 2, a dishonorable dismission, or a definite or an indefinite suspension; but they can only recommend the expulsion of a student, and refer the same for the action of the board of trustees.

LAWS, ETC.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

As the object of discipline is to promote mental and moral culture, and to restrain vice, the following laws shall be strictly observed:

Each recitation shall continue one hour, unless otherwise ordered by the faculty, a portion of which time shall be occupied in reviewing the recitation of the previous day.

Immediately after the daily recitations of each student, the professor shall affix a numerical mark to his name, designating the value of his recitation. For a perfect recitation the number shall be five; for an imperfect one a smaller number; and for a failure zero. If the deficiency has been satisfactorily explained before the commencement of the recitation—that is, if it has arisen from circumstances over which the student had no control—no other mark shall be added. If the explanation is unsatisfactory, or if no explanation be offered, it shall incur an addition demerit mark of from two to five.

On Monday of every week, each officer shall make to the president a report of the standing of every student for the week preceding.

If a student is unable from ill health to pursue his studies, he shall immediately request a leave of absence. Until such leave be obtained, he is held responsible for the discharge of his duties. When such leave of absence is granted, the president shall immediately notify the parent or guardian of the fact.

The laws of the University extend over the whole period, from the commencement to the close of the term, no portion of the week being exempt from them.

Every student shall be responsible for damage committed by him upon the furniture or other property of the institution; and for any such damage he shall pay such fine as may be assessed by the faculty.

Permission of absence from college shall not be granted unless for cause of urgent necessity.

Any student guilty of playing at cards, or any other game of hazard, shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

Any student who shall oppose or speak against the decisions and established rules of the faculty in presence of other students, shall be publicly reprimanded, and on the second offense shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

Any student who shall be guilty of licentiousness, using ardent spirits, or visiting drinking establishments, shall be suspended or otherwise severely punished.

No student shall be guilty of nocturnal disorders or revelings, or become connected with any dancing school, society, or social club, without the approval of the faculty; and for a violation of this rule, such a student shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

Any student who shall absent himself from the University without permission of his parent, guardian, or the faculty, shall be ipso facto suspended.

No suspended student shall come within the college campus, but shall retire to such place, and for such time, as shall be prescribed by the faculty; and for the violation of this rule he shall be liable to expulsion.

Any student who shall associate with an expelled student shall be subject to suspension.

The presiding teacher of a department or room may excuse, temporarily, a student from his or her class, or room; but the president only can excuse a student from the university enclosure during study hours, and then the application must be made to him in writing.

Each student shall pursue dilligently the course of study prescribed for him by the faculty; and, failing to do so, he shall first be affectionately admonished by the faculty, and, unless reclaimed, shall be suspended from the institution or otherwise punished.

Any student guilty of using profane language shall be publicly reprimanded, and for the third offense shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

No student shall carry about his person, or keep firearms or other dangerous weapons; and if found guilty, shall be suspended or otherwise punished.

Any student who shall circulate, or cause to be circulated any false report about the university, or epidemics, shall be liable to suspension or otherwise punished.

No young lady of the institution shall receive the attention of young men. A violation of this rule will incur a heavy penalty at the discretion of the faculty.

Young men must not visit the chapel or young lady's study and recitation rooms, unless invited by a member of the faculty. A violation of this rule will subject the offender to a repremand from the president.

Any student who behaves improperly at church, or commits any act inconsistent with the deportment of a gentleman, shall first be affectionately admonished by the president, and, unless reclaimed he shall request the parent or guardian to withdraw him from the institution.

No student who is a minor shall open an account without the written permission of his or her parent or guardian, and every student is strictly required to make a monthly report to his parent or guardian of all his expenses.

If any parent or guardian pay any debt contracted, in violation of the preceding by-law, the child or ward so offending shall be liable to expulsion from the University.

Disturbances in the chapel, or lecture room, or in any port of the college premises, shall incur a demerit from two to five.

Absence at the time of calling the roll, unless previous permission be granted, or the reason why that permission could not be requested, be rendered previous to 12 M of the subsequent day, shall incur a demerit from two to five.

Absence from rooms after dark and before 9 P. M., a demerit of five; if after 9 P. M.. a demerit of ten.

Any student that shall be too late to recitation shall receive two demerits.

Any student that shall be guilty of talking in school, or in recitation, shall receive two demerits.

Any student that shall leave the University during study hours, without permission, shall receive two demerits; and should he leave after permission has been refused, he shall receive five demerits.

For any disturbance in or about the University building, during study hours, three demerits.

For leaving seat or desk during study hours, two demerits.

For leaving room during study hours, three demerits.

For lounging about streets, or around stores, two demerits.

When the demerits of any student, for any term, amount to twenty, it shall be the duty of the president to inform his parent or guardian of the fact; and when his demerits amount to fifty to dismiss him from the University, or otherwise punish him, and inform his parent or guardian of the fact.

SESSION, TERMS, REVIEWS, AND EXAMINATIONS.

ANNUAL SESSION.

The annual session of ten months commences the first Monday in September, and continues through forty-one weeks, including a week for Christmas holidays, divided into two terms of twenty weeks each, called Fall and Spring Terms. Each month is closed with a review of the studies of the same.

ANNUAL EXAMINATION.

The annual examination, or commencement week, will be on the last week of the annual session, at which all the students will be examined thoroughly and impartially in the several studies they have pursued, so that the patrons of the institution may judge of the real progress of the students during the previous term. It is earnestly requested that no parent or guardian will permit his child or ward to withdraw from the institution just before an examination. Such withdrawal is regarded as highly disreputable to the student, and will be so announced during the examination.

VACATION.

There will be one vacation during the year, commencing at the close of the annual examination and extending to the first Monday in September following, when the session of ten months will commence.

MEETING OF THE BOARD.

The annual meeting of the board of trustees shall be held on the first days of the annual examination of the University.

Tuition in advance. Parents and guardians must arrange for their tuition bills by cash advances, or note bearing ten per cent. interest per annum, before the child or ward can be matriculated. No deduction except in case of death, or of protracted personal illness. Graduating fee, ten dollars.

POCKET CHANGE, ETC.

Pocket money furnished to students beyond their actual necessities is alike injurious to the students and the University. Parents are therefore guarded against mistaken kindness on this point.

No young lady will be allowed to retain money in her possession, but will deposit it for safe keeping with Mr. S. B. Humphries, or the treasurer of the faculty, who will give a receipt for it, and hold it subject to the call of the owner.

GENERAL REMARKS, ETC.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

The Faculty will constantly aim to imbue the minds and hearts of the students with a deep sense of honor and moral excellence As the Bible is the only foundation of morals and religion, its teaching will be often and solemnly enforced.

Although the University is a Baptist institution, and belongs to the Baptist denomination, nothing sectarian will be taught in the daily recitations. Especial attention will be given to Sunday school and Bible-classes; and every student is required to attend Sunday school and public worship at such place as his guardian or parent may designate; provided, if the student be a young lady of the boarding hall, she must be attended to such place of worship some suitable person, otherwise, she must attend the Baptist church. If no special place is designated, the young ladies will accompany the governess to the Baptist church. All secular studies and correspondenc are forbidden on Sunday.

THE UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS.

The University are two well constructed and neatly finished brick buildings, each two stories high, and sixty feet long by thirty six wide. They are placed sixty feet apart, and are the wings of the main building, which is to be sixy by one hundred and fifteen feet, and three stories high. The commodious boarding hall for the female boarding department is now ready for occupancy. A vigorous effort will also be made to erect a similar building to Paulding Hall, of Georgetown, Ky., for our young preachers, and other worthy young men of limited means. When this building is completed young men can get their board for about five dollars a month.

HEALTH.

As a healthy location Waco is unsurpassed—situated on the west bank of the Brazos river, on a sandy foundation. There being no bottom lands for some distance above or below, but a rolling prairie commencing at the bank of the river and extending fifty miles south, gives us an elevated position above malaria or any local cause for sickness. This is verified by the statistics of the permanent population.

Waco University has matriculated, during the last ten years, a greater number of students than any other institution west of the Mississippi river, and during that time has lost but ten students, and six of this number were from measles and other diseases contracted at home.

THE LIBRARY AND APPARATUS.

The University has a library of about 1000 volumes, and a small but well selected chemical and philosophical apparatus.

LOCATION.

The flourishing city of Waco is said to be within fifteen miles of the geographical centre of Texas. It is accessible by railroad daily and three lines of stages. The hospitality, intelligence and enterprise of the citizens of Waco are widely known. The fact that the citizens of Waco and vicinity, entirely within themselves, during the first year of the war, furnished the University with building, library, etc., equal to any institution within the State, fully demonstrates that their reputation is well founded.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

Special attention and facilities will be extended to those who wish to prepare themselves as teachers. A diploma from Waco University will ever be a secure guarantee for competency to teach. Some of our students have become successful presidents and members of colleges; and we are glad to know our students are eagerly sought as teachers, because of their thorough acquaintance with the character and wants of Texas students.

DRESS.

It is specially desired that the dress of students shall be simple and inexpensive. Simplicity saves time and thought, and money, which to a scholar are precious for higher uses.

The young ladies of Waco University will all be required in the future to dress in uniform, which will be as follows: For spring and summer the color must be pink—either calico, muslin or lawn —and one of white. Hats of white straw, trimmed in pink ribbons; no artificial flowers. The dresses must be made entirely plain; no flounces or ruffles will be allowed. Plain linen, collars and cuffs, except with the white dresses, when a neat lace collar will be allowed, fastened simply with a breast pin; no bows or any other jewelery permitted.

The winter costume must be sea green, black sacque cloak. Hats, white straw, trimmed with green ribbon, without either plumes or flowers. The dresses will be made quite plain, no flounces or trimming at all. Plain linen collars and cuffs. No lace permitted for winter wear. This uniform to be worn on all public occasions, church, examinations, etc., but not for every-day wear. For every-day wear the young ladies will be allowed to consult their own taste as to color and material; provided the dress be neat and plain. Each student should be provided with an umbrella, thick shoes, and India rubber over-shoes, and slippers, and a warm dressing gown.

THEOLOGICAL INSTRUCTION.

To all young men preparing for the ministry, the President, assisted by Rev. H. B. Carroll, pastor of the Baptist church, Waco, will give, in a separate class, a short, practical course of instruction in homiletics, ecclesiastical history, Biblical interpretation, pastoral theology and Hebrew. The following young men have pursued their studies preparatory to the great work of the Gospel ministry: W. T. Compere, L. L. Foster, E. T. Jones, R. G. Horsely, J. B. Parrack, C. C. Parrack, and C. W. Pelt. However, all young ministers, after finishing their literary course, are urged to pursue if possible, a full course of theology in our Southern Theological Seminary, at Greenville, S. C. All young preachers and the children of pastors, or orphans of soldiers, receive their tuition free.

TEXAS EDUCATION.

We have every reason to be satisfied with the amount of patronage we have ever received; yet can but regret the disposition of some parents to send their sons and daughters to distant States. Such parents seem to forget that they are depriving them of many of the sweetest joys of human life—the joy of meeting everywhere old schoolmates, and also of powerful means of success. A student remaining in Waco University three or four years will form intimate and pleasant associations with three or four hundred young men from every part of Texas.

Besides all this, it is a fact that colleges, like States, usually produce their greatest men while young and struggling for "a name and place in history. Not less than 300 students are sent out of Texas annually, at a cost of $300,000—a sum sufficient to sustain two such universities as Brown or Harvard; and abundant facts show that young men educated in Texas are every way equal to those educated in older States.

PERMANENCY.

No institution in Texas rests upon a surer foundation than Waco University. Over 1000 young men in Texas have received instruction from the president and faculty during their in connection with Baylor and Waco Universities. Many of these students have already become judges, lawyers, generals, physicians, professors and clergymen; and in every part of the State there is an earnest desire for the success of the institution. Its present condition is in every way gratifying to its friends, and promises a glorious future.

THE FEMALE BOARDING DEPARTMENT.

The young ladies are required to board at the University Boarding house, except it shall be with a near relative, then they shall observe the same hours of study and rules of regulation that are required of the young ladies in the boarding house.

The advantages of boarding in the institution must be patent to all; the principal are: 1st. Better accommodations and at cheaper rates than can be found elsewhere. 2d. Systematic hours of study and recreation, and protection against interruption of every kind. 3d. The watchful care and counsel of the lady teachers in all the details of general deportment and social ettiquette. No private family can afford equal facilities for study and general improvement.

Each young lady must furnish her own sheets and blankets, towels and toilet articles.

All articles to be washed must have the full name of the owner indellibly marked upon them, or they will not be washed. One dozen pieces will be washed weekly for each boarder; all over this number will be charged for extra.

The young ladies are required to study two hours at night and one hour before breakfast in the morning, in the study hall, under the direction of the governess. The chapel, parlor, dining-room and halls will be lighted with kerosene and gasolene; students must furnish candles for their rooms. All damage to furniture in the rooms except necessary wear and tear, will be assessed upon the occupants of the room in which said damage occurs. The fare will at all times be adapted to students, sufficient, plain and nutritious. Parents are earnestly requested not to send bundles or boxes of eatables to their daughters while at the boarding house, as the keeper of the house undertakes to furnish good and sufficient board. Price of board is $15 per month, coin, payable invariably in advance, except by special arrangement. No room will be reserved for a pupil longer than one week from the opening of the session. Medical attention and correspondents will be under the direction of the president. Each young lady must attend Sunday school and church under the supervision of the governess, or some one of the female teachers, unless she is excused by the president or governess. To obtain an excuse, the young lady must present a written application to the president or governess, stating why she cannot attend Sunday school and church. If she shall fail to make a written application for an excuse, then she shall make a written explanation why she did not to the president or governess, before twelve o'clock, Monday, otherwise she shall not receive less than five nor more than ten demerits.

BOARDING FOR MALES.

Prof. R. B. Burleson lives one mile west from the University, on the high prairie, and will take six male students as boarders into his family, at $15, coin, per month, in advance; washing and lights extra. Other private families in town will take male students at the same rates.

CONCLUDING REMARKS.

The president of the faculty wishes to return his devout thanks to the people of Texas, who have so liberally patronized and sustained him and his associates for the last twenty years. He wishes especially to return his acknowledgments to his old patrons and students who have manifested so lively an interest in an institution around which cluster all his future hopes of usefulness and success. He invites the co-operation of all who wish to see Texas become as great in learning as she is illustrious in arms.

He now enters upon the twenty-first year of his labors as president, and with increased experience and an ever-accumulating zeal in the glorious mission of Christian education, to which he has solemnly consecrated his life.
